Overview

USA TODAY's analysis found 15% of counties nationwide now have some impediment to new utility-scale wind and solar energy. Gauging those impediments required researching a variety of local rules including outright bans, zoning restrictions, specialized land-use rules or. At least 15% of counties in the U. will not approve wind or solar power projects. Trump has tightened federal permitting for renewables with Interior Secretary Doug Burgum now having the final say. Renewable companies fear that projects will no longer receive permits that were once normal course. As part of a series of attacks on wind and solar, the IRS eliminated a key pathway for companies to demonstrate they have begun construction and thus qualify for federal tax credits before they expire on J. The administration unjustly and arbitrarily singled out solar and wind projects. Actions to expand generation and consumption of solar and wind energy are seen in three distinct arenas: (1) incentivizing renewable energy production and use, (2) increasing the use of public lands for solar and wind energy projects, and (3) expanding electricity transmission to allow. Previous studies identified at least 1,800 local zoning restrictions on wind projects as of 2021, such as setback requirements, and approximately 800 restrictions on solar projects.
