

The Solar Power Rental Scam Revealed

Overview

A Los Angeles judge approved an $845 million judgment against a rental company accused of misrepresenting its solar generator construction capabilities to investors. The current plan is for the tax credit to drop to 26% in 2033 and again to 22% in 2034, as part of the Federal Inflation Reduction Act. It's worth noting that the government will not send you a check in the mail as your solar tax credit. Rather, when you pay your taxes, you can count your solar use. Did a salesperson knock on your door and promise free rooftop solar panels at no cost to you?

Or say you'll never have to pay another electricity bill because government programs, grants, or rebates cover your solar installation?

It's likely a scam. The big lie: The total cost of the project will be. A solar panel scam traps homeowners in long-term financial and legal headaches, often before they realize what has happened.
