Overview

Paris-based Voltalia will install the 100-MW Gabes solar photovoltaic (PV) farm, while Scatec, in partnership with a unit of Toyota Tsusho Corp (TYO:8015), will build a 100-MW plant in Sidi Bouzid. The Tunisian government says concession and authorization frameworks are advancing multiple PV projects, while new entrants including SoleCrypt plan additional plants, boosting capacity, self-generation, and panel imports. From pv magazine France After years of delays, Tunisia is accelerating. The Sidi Bouzid and Tozeur Solar Projects are photovoltaic power developments planned for central and western Tunisia, respectively. Set to be operational by 2027, these projects aim to generate 1 TWh annually, contributing around 5% of the country's electricity supply. Tunisia signs contracts for 500 MW of solar projects. An announcement posted on the ministry's.
